RIVERS & RIDGELINES

Days 1–3 · Rishikesh to Auli

DAY 1

Arrive at Rishikesh

Land in the yoga capital of the world and meet your trip family on the banks of the Ganga. Evening free to explore the ghats and cafes.

DAY 2

Travel to Auli

A spectacular mountain drive via four of the five holy confluences of the River Ganga — Devprayag, Rudraprayag, Karnaprayag and Nandprayag.

DAY 3

Acclimatisation trek to Gorsan Bugyal

Warm up your trekking legs on rolling alpine meadows with views of Nanda Devi, travelling via Vishnuprayag — the fifth holy confluence.

Devprayag — where the Ganga is born

THE HIGH TREKS

Days 4–6 · Ghangharia, Hemkund & the Valley

DAY 4

Govindghat to Ghangharia

Drive to Govindghat via Joshimath, take a jeep to Poolna, then trek through the Bhyundar valley to the hamlet of Ghangharia.

DAY 5

Trek to Hemkund Sahib

A steep, soulful climb to the highest Gurudwara in the world, set beside a glacial lake ringed by seven peaks.

DAY 6

Trek to Valley of Flowers

Wander the UNESCO World Heritage valley at peak monsoon bloom — hundreds of alpine flower species carpeting the meadows.

Hemkund Sahib and Lokpal Lake, 4,329 m

TEMPLES & THE ROAD HOME

Days 7–9 · Badrinath, Mana & Rishikesh

DAY 7

Badrinath & Mana Village

Trek down to Govindghat and continue to Badrinath temple and Mana — India's first village — before returning to Auli via Vishnuprayag.

DAY 8

Travel back to Rishikesh

Retrace the river road down the mountains for one last evening by the Ganga.

DAY 9

Homeward bound

Travel back to your city with sore legs, full hearts and a camera roll of the Himalaya.

Badrinath Temple, Chamoli

Gorsan Bugyal

Valley of Flowers

Mana Village
